CBOs, and meeting with community members every other Tuesday at Alliance for Coney Island, located at 1904 Surf Avenue, Brooklyn, NY.

Flex Into UX!, our collaboration with Brooklyn Public Library, continues to connect with Brooklynites and has had 272 interactions with participants in both virtual and in-person sessions. The September 30th Design-A-Thon had six teams of four members each, working on solutions for Brooklyn problems related to sound pollution, irresponsibly driven scooters and e-bikes or challenges of finding on-street parking. Winning designs will be on display at www.FlexIntoUX.com. News 12 mentioned KCC in a recent news segment titled, "
